

Naples → Amalfi Coast (Day Trip, Senior-Friendly)

The easiest way is ferry. High-speed ferries (hydrofoils) run directly from Naples (Molo Beverello) to Amalfi ¹. The ferry ride (~19 nautical miles) takes about 2-2½ hours one-way ². This avoids any transfers or difficult roads. Ferries depart multiple times daily (e.g. first around 08:35, last around 15:35 ¹). We recommend a midday departure (after 10:00 AM as you requested) so you arrive in Amalfi early afternoon. For example, a 12:00–12:30 PM departure from Naples would get you to Amalfi by 2:00–3:00 PM ². (Tickets can be bought online or at the port; ferries like NLG or Positano Jet are comfortable and foot-passenger friendly ³.)

- Sample Itinerary:

- 12:00 PM: Board the ferry at Naples Beverello (≈2 km from central Naples ⁴). The journey is ~2h10 ².
- ~2:10 PM: Arrive Port of Amalfi. (The port is just ~150 m from Amalfi's town centre ⁴, so you can quickly reach the main piazza and harbor.)
- Afternoon in Amalfi: Enjoy a leisurely walk along the waterfront and streets – Amalfi's center around the port is relatively flat, with restaurants and shops right at the docks ⁴. You might visit the Duomo in Piazza Duomo (a short stroll from the harbor), try local pastries (sfogliatelle) or just relax by the sea.
- 5:00 PM: Catch an afternoon ferry back. Ferries from Amalfi run until ~5 PM ⁵. The 17:00 ferry arrives Naples by ~19:00 ³ (on time for your 7:30 PM deadline).

In Amalfi itself, focus on easy, flat areas. The harbor-front promenade and central piazza (Duomo area) require only short walks (the pier to piazza is only 148 m ⁴). Enjoy a waterfront lunch or gelato and soak in the views of the colorful town. (Avoid hiking up steep lanes or climbing many stairs – stick to the main level streets.)

In summary: take a direct ferry from Naples to Amalfi midday, spend the afternoon walking around the level areas of Amalfi's town center, and return by ferry late afternoon. This plan involves no transfers and minimal walking, fitting comfortably into 10 AM–7:30 PM ¹ ⁵.

Sources: Ferry schedules from Naples–Amalfi confirm frequent direct service (~5–8 per day) with ~2h10m crossing ² ³. Port information notes that Naples' Beverello and Amalfi's harbor are close to each city center (no long walks needed) ⁴, and ferries run until about 5 PM ⁵ for an early evening return.
