

Accessible Amalfi Coast Day Trip (Naples → Amalfi)

To minimize walking and ensure comfort, the easiest route is by ferry. High-speed catamarans from Naples (Molo Beverello) reach Amalfi in ~1.5–2h. For example, NLG's 10:00 ferry (Naples→Amalfi) arrives ~11:50 ¹; a 15:45 return leaves Amalfi arriving Naples 17:15 ². Ferries run ~8 times daily (first ferry ~9:00) ³, and tickets cost around €32 one-way ³. Book ferries through official sites (NLG or Travelmar) or aggregators (Omio, DirectFerries) ¹ ³. Ferries have indoor seating and toilets on board.

- Ferry (Naples–Amalfi): Fast catamarans (NLG/Travelmar) depart Naples port 10:00, 10:35, etc ¹. 10:00 (NLG) costs €32 and arrives Amalfi ~11:50 ¹. Return ferries depart Amalfi at 15:45 and 17:00 ² ⁴ (arriving Naples by 18:30). Tickets on NLG/Travelmar or Omio ³.
- Train + Ferry/Bus: Take the Campania Express Circumvesuviana train from Napoli (Porta Nolana/Garibaldi) to Sorrento (1h10) ⁵. For example, the 11:26 departure arrives Sorrento 12:35 ⁵. (Tickets €15 one-way ⁶, book via EAV online ⁶.) From Sorrento you can either board a ferry to Amalfi (check NLG/Travelmar for Sorrento–Amalfi ferries) or a SITA bus (line 5070) through Positano to Amalfi (~1h10). Alternatively, take a Trenitalia train (Frecciarossa/Regionale) Naples→Salerno (~30min) and switch to a Travelmar ferry from Salerno to Amalfi (35min, 10 sailings daily ⁷) or SITA bus 5120 (Salerno–Amalfi, ~1h ⁸).
- Bus (direct): Very limited SITA Sud buses run Naples→Amalfi (lines 5020/5080) only 1–2 times/day. Service is erratic ⁹, so this is not recommended. Schedules and tickets are hard to find, though some platforms (Busbud, Omio) list SITA routes.
- Private Tour/Transfer: For maximum convenience, book an accessible private van/tour (e.g. through GetYourGuide). Some tours (e.g. “Naples Private Amalfi Coast Day Tour”) use wheelchair-accessible vans and cover Positano, Amalfi, Ravello ¹⁰ ¹¹. This ensures door-to-door pickup and step-free transport.

Sample Itinerary (10:00–19:00)

1. 10:00 – Board the 10:00 high-speed ferry at Naples Beverello port (buy tickets online). Arrive Amalfi ~11:50 ¹.
2. 12:00–15:00 – Explore Amalfi town (mostly flat). Visit the waterfront promenade, piazza, and easy attractions. (Lunch break ~13:00.) Restrooms are available near the port and main square.
3. 15:45 – Take the 15:45 ferry back to Naples (arrive ~17:15) ². Alternatively, stay in Amalfi until 17:00 and catch that ferry (arrive Naples 18:30) ⁴. Either way, you'll be back in Naples well before 19:00.

Accessible Destinations & Facilities

Accessible promenade in Sorrento. Both Amalfi and Sorrento are among the flattest Amalfi Coast towns. Sorrento has level streets and an elevator connecting the main square to the marina ¹². Amalfi sits at sea level with a wide pedestrian waterfront and few stairs ¹³. (Its Duomo has steps up, so admire it from below.) Elder travelers can stroll the flat plazas and waterfront with minimal effort.

Restrooms: Naples' major hubs have restrooms (Napoli Centrale train station and Beverello ferry port). In Sorrento, public toilets exist near the elevator to the harbor ¹². In Amalfi, there is a public WC by the main pier/waterfront. Smaller cafés or stations often allow restroom use for customers. Ferries usually have onboard toilets (confirm with staff). Always carry tissues, as some Italian public restrooms require it.

Booking Resources

- Trains: Trenitalia (official site) sells Napoli–Salerno tickets. The Circumvesuviana/Campania Express is run by EAV (Ente Autonomo Volturno) – tickets via EAV's site or local station.
- Ferries: Navigazione Libera del Golfo \(NLG\) for Naples–Amalfi ferries, and Travelmar for Salerno/Amalfi routes. Also use aggregators like Omio or DirectFerries to compare times/prices.
- Buses: SITA Sud tickets (Salerno–Amalfi, etc.) can be booked via platforms like Busbud or at local kiosks in Campania.
- Tours: Look at GetYourGuide (accessible private Amalfi Coast tours) or similar.

Each of these sites is reputable for advance booking. Always choose “one-way day-trip” tickets or round-trip where needed, and double-check refund policies. Safe travels and enjoy the breathtaking, accessible Amalfi Coast!
